

Guidance Document: What Constitutes a Reportable Crime?

Under the Crimes Act 1900 (NSW) it is an offence to conceal a Child Abuse Offence or a Serious Indictable Offence.

This guidance document refers to Serious Indictable Offences and Child Abuse Offences collectively, as "Reportable Crimes".

Reportable Crimes must be reported to the NSW Police and a failure to report can result in imprisonment unless a Reasonable Excuse is provided as outlined by the Crimes Act 1900 (NSW).

The Archdiocese requires all Clergy, Religious Appointees, Employees, Volunteers and contractors to report Reportable Crimes to the NSW Police. In practice, the Safeguarding Office assists with reporting to the NSW Police.

This document provides guidance as to what constitutes a Reportable Crime.

Overview

A Child Abuse Offence includes a range of Serious Indictable Offences and other offences set out in the Crimes Act 1900 (NSW), committed against a Child.

A Serious Indictable Offence is defined as an offence that is punishable by imprisonment for a period of 5 years or more.

There are a vast number of Serious Indictable Offences and Child Abuse Offences that are listed in the Table of Reportable Crimes. Broadly speaking, Reportable Crimes that present at the parishes and agencies could to include:

1. Physical Assault of a Child or adult;
2. Sexual Assault of a Child or adult;
3. Indecent Assault of a Child or adult;
4. committing a Sexual Act or Sexual Touching against a Child;
5. Grooming behaviour;
6. the possession, dissemination or production of "Child abuse material", which includes Child pornography and any material depicting a Child as a victim or torture or cruelty;
7. the recording or distributing of "Intimate Images" without consent; and
