

Update for Plenary Council First Assembly

Monday 27 September 2021

We now have less than a week to go to the Assembly. With the Fifth Plenary Council of Australia being an event for the whole Church, parts of the first general assembly will be livestreamed each day.

The home page of the Plenary Council website will be the place to go to find the livestream each day.

<https://plenarycouncil.catholic.org.au/>

There are also Masses and prayer resources that can be accessed from this site.

Follow online

Here are some highlights from the livestream schedule:

October 3: Opening Mass of the Fifth Plenary Council of Australia, 2pm AEDT from St Mary's Cathedral in Perth.

For Sydney

Archbishop Fisher will be celebrating an Opening Mass at the Cathedral on Sunday morning at 10.30 am. This may be accessed from

3rd October - <https://youtu.be/gkDKyUm2-3I>

10th October - <https://youtu.be/j-svTTMmIFo>

October 4-9: Daily Mass broadcast at 9.30am AEDT and on demand afterwards. Archbishop Fisher will be celebrating the Daily Mass at this time on Wednesday 6 October.

October 4-6 and October 8-9: Plenary session livestream starts at 11am AEDT and runs until approximately 12.15pm AEDT.

October 7: Plenary session livestream starts at 12 noon AEDT and runs until approximately 12.45pm AEDT.

October 10: Closing Mass of the First General Assembly, 11am AEDT from St Stephen's Cathedral, Brisbane

Daily Blogs from Sydney Members

There will be daily blogs from some of the Sydney members and theological advisors. This will be made available on a dedicated webpage on The Catholic Weekly website here:

<https://www.catholicweekly.com.au/category/plenary-2020/>

Additional Information

We were provided with a link that will enable you to access the documents related to the Assembly.

<https://drive.google.com/drive/folders/1fD09cfa5UsG3zIncZIJzBde5yQIY-AeE?usp=sharing>